Dear Jim:

Thank you for your letter of December 24 regarding the transfer of 68 protective security positions from the General Services Administration to CIA in FY 1985. This action, which provides for a full takeover by CIA of protection of the CIA Headquarters complex and the National Photographic Interpretation Center (NPIC) by March 31, 1986, is in accordance with OMB guidance. As our staffs have discussed this transfer will be reflected in the President's 1986 Budget, and OMB's 1986 allowance letter for the NFIP and GSA.

As Al Keel's letter of May 14, 1984 specifies, CIA will also assume protective security functions for the new headquarters building scheduled for completion in 1987. As consolidation of CIA functions proceeds, you should develop a plan with GSA to provide a net reduction in protective security positions.
